The following is a summary of the public outreach efforts of the Economic Development Strategy project to date. A final version will be available after the findings of the focus group and in-person interviews with local businesses are included. To view the draft document, click here.